HE GIABBED BOTH WOMEN.

Mrs. Browe and Ella Poynton Assailed by a Ruffian-Police Fail to Hear Their Criss.

Mrs. Georg Brower, of No. 925 Fast One Hundred art seventy-lifth street, and Elia Poynton, of No. 671 East One Hundred and Thirty-eight, street, attended a wedding at St. Joseph's 'hurch, Washington avenue and One Hundrd and Seventy-sixth street, Wednesday vening. They left the church shortly after 8 P. M. and proceeded towards Mrs. Browert home. Just as they turned the corner of This avenue a man stepped from be-hind a tree a.d followed them. The street is poorly lighter and is skirted by woods on one Suddenly be man grabbed Miss Poynton by the collar and attempted to drag her towards the woods. Airs. Brower turned to see what had happened and was also clutched by the fellow. The two women began to scream and every one in the neighborhood was aroused. When the man saw help approaching he escaped into he woods.

The manus about thirty years old, of medium height and has a small huntreb, and historia. beight andhas a small mustache and piercing black eye. He wore dark clothing and an olive browderby.
